Introducing Capt. Lacey Kelly
by mylesman0112@gmail.com
October 9, 2024

Hi my name is Lacey and I'm from Florida, 5 generations deep. For those that know me personally I think that I'll keep this short as possible but this section is ultimately for those that I have not yet crossed paths with! Here's the short version of where I'm from, why I chose to be... Read more

Need Travel Accommodations?

The image shows a search interface for travel accommodations. It has two tabs: 'Stays' and 'Flights'. Under 'Stays', there is a 'Going to' field with a location pin icon, a 'Check-in' field with a calendar icon, and a 'Check-out' field with a calendar icon. Below these fields, it says 'Powered by Expedia' with the Expedia logo. A blue 'Search' button is on the right.

Cancellation/Modification Policy

If you need to make modifications to your trip regarding the date, the number of participants, etc., the Guide Book Pro support team will do our best to accommodate your request. Please reach out to us at contact@guidebookco.com or visit our support page.

Any time a guide cancels a trip, for any reason, you will be issued a full refund. As with customers, guides must contact support to cancel or modify trips. If a guide cancels or modifies a trip, we will contact you as soon as possible, and if you would like, do our best to find an alternative solution to get you out in the wild.

Species:

Species

Blue Catfish

Blue catfish can be found in the waters of many states—both coastal and inland. Native to the Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio, and Rio Grande river basins, they have been introduced to other areas, primarily to serve as a recreational fishing target. Many anglers like fishing for blue catfish because they are strong, savvy fish that are a good challenge...See full species page...

Mahi Mahi

Mahi mahi are highly sought for sport fishing and commercial purposes. They are pelagic fish found in off-shore temperate, tropical, and subtropical waters. Mahi dishes have become a staple in many restaurants, though much of what we see in restaurants and grocery stores across the country comes from the Pacific. Mahi mahi are found in the...See full species page...

Atlantic Salmon

Atlantic salmon, also known as the “King of Fish,” are an iconic species of the Northeast and once supported fisheries throughout their range. All Atlantic salmon in the public market is cultured and commercially grown. Only farm-raised Atlantic salmon are found in U.S. seafood markets. Atlantic salmon are migratory fish that hatch in...See full species page...

Striped Marlin

Striped marlin are a highly migratory fish living at the top of the food chain in the tropical and subtropical regions of the Pacific and Indian Oceans. It is a member of a larger family known as billfish, which get their name from their upper jaw that extends to form a spear. Because of their large size, marlin are prized sport fish. Striped marlin also support...See full page...
